BATH HIGH SCHOOL
Bath, North Carolina

Dedication

W. F. Veasey
Superintendent, Beaufort County Schools

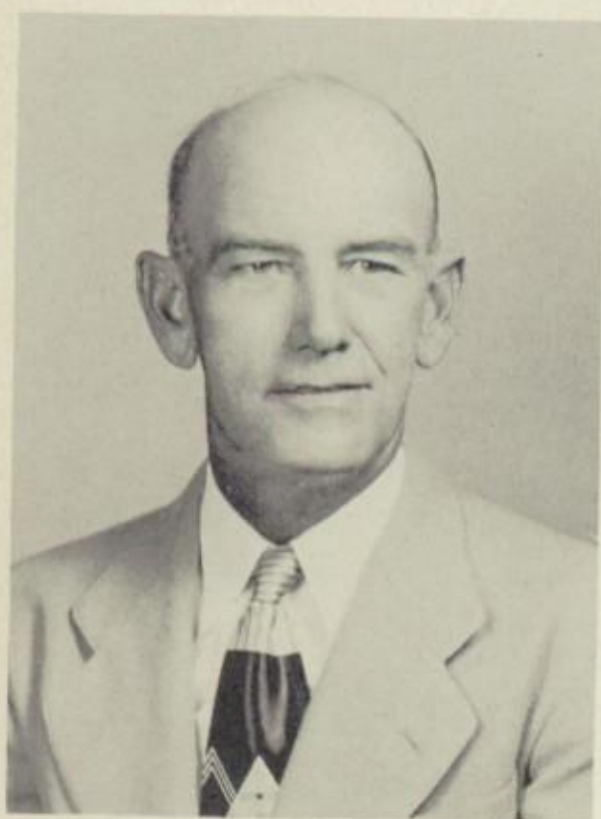

Desiring to show our appreciation for his long loyalty and interest in our school, we dedicate the nineteen hundred and fifty-three edition of our annual to Mr. W. F. Veasey, Superintendent of Beaufort County Schools. We feel that Mr. Veasey has done and will continue to do an excellent job of administering to the schools. Following an enforced temporary vacation resulting from illness, he is back with us and doing as fine a job as ever with the county schools.

CLASS POEM OF 1953

As we leave this dear old school,
 Our hearts are sad and blue,
 For it represents to us a goal
 Of the things which we hold true.

We hate to leave our many friends
 That through the years we've made,
 And the teachers, all true godsend,
 Have brought us through the grades.

To the rising Seniors of today
 We leave our beloved school
 With the hope that along the way
 They'll follow the Golden Rule.

To the president of this knowledge bank
 We bid a fond farewell.
 To him we owe so many thanks
 Too numerous to tell.

As we journey out on our own
 Attempting our fortune to seek,
 We'll always think of you alone
 Our school on historic Bath Creek.

Class Prophecy

I shall now see how the future looks for the seniors of 1953. As I look into the depths of my crystal ball, I see each senior ten years from today. And what do I see?

Right now Evelyn Alligood is rehearsing for her TV show which comes on every night on Channel 4. By the way, it is sponsored by the Woolard and Woolard Soap Company, owned by Billy and Norris Woolard.

Now here's some real good news! Hilton Woolard just made a home-run for the Brooklyn Dodgers and the crowd is really giving him a nice hand. Among the cheerleaders are two of his favorites, Ann Kilby and Judy Chrismon. On the side-line is Maynard Waters who is second up to bat!

EXTRA! EXTRA! Read all about it! About what? Guy Whitley has just received the Silver Trophy for his fine singing the last five years. Indeed, he has taken over for Mario Lanza.

And that reminds us of Hollywood where Gwen Paul is continually having trouble with her director over a new movie. It features Roddy Selby, too.

Did you say you needed a shoe shine? Step right up! Dick Adams and Ralph Kirk are ready to serve you. Please patronize their business in Bath.

Say, what's this? Dell Meekins, Phrosene Latham, and Bessie Waters are singing with the Grand Ole Opry, with special music by John Woolard and Alexander Whitaker. I think the boys fiddle and the girls sing. Maybe that's holler.

Who got married? Quite a few. Isabelle Ambrose and Ronald Woolard were married two weeks after graduation and are still honeymooning in California. Isabelle Keech got married too, but she doesn't like long stays from home. I guess she's like Frances Edwards who didn't even have a honeymoon.

Please be careful and don't get sick if you can help it. Ella Ruth Congleton and Mildred Daniels are nurses at the Tayloe Hospital in Washington. And can it be true that Morris Waters is the head doctor? Poor patients! This means more business for the Carrow Funeral Home in Pinetown. Ronald's business, that is.

It may interest you to know that Billy Smith and Ollie Ray Cutler have joined the State Fair and are getting good pay for their hell-driving stunts. I just know Hugh Woolard envies them. He's a traveling salesman and doesn't ever get the chance to ride, though he doesn't walk. We hear he invented a flying machine.

ECC was really honored when Hazel Gurkin and Steve Douglas entered the fall classes there about five years ago. I'm really thankful that I've finished school. How about the rest of you??

Excuse me for a moment. My crystal ball is getting dusty and I must dust it before I tell something wrong. There we are, and thanks. Now I will finish this great prophecy for you.

Marcia Boyd is still running that little fellow she had on the go when he was in school. Maybe he'll get tired of running after a while and marry her, or perhaps she will go and live with Elizabeth Cutler. She's an old maid, but a fair one.

Since Leon Davidson has started driving the Englehard bus, it seems that there are no passengers. He appeared in court the other day and was found guilty of speeding. No wonder though, Rosalee Congleton was the judge. Women judges are awful, eh Leon?

Jean Gibbs couldn't bear the thoughts of leaving Bath, so she got the job of coaching basketball in the school here. They have a real good team too. I guess the spirit was in the students.

Let's go to Florida. For what? Well, we might see Sylvia Clark or Marilyn Mason, who are champion swimmers among the many other swimmers at Silver Springs. They plan to enter the contest this year to see which one can swim the English Channel. Good luck, girls.

I really hate to tell you this, but it looks as though the crystal ball is wearing down, and the last thing it foresees is Louise Colville and Janice Wallace making dresses and suits for the ladies. But wait! It also sees that Fannie Modlin is secretary for the Max Factor Company of Hollywood.

I wish to thank my crystal ball for its fine service, and I too think our class of '53 is doing and has done a fine job.

Class History

In August, 1949 the doors of old Bath High School swung open to seventy-nine eager freshmen who were clamoring to begin their high school education. Somewhat frightened by the bells, and decidedly confused by the lengthy assignments of English, Biology, and Algebra that were handed to us, we wondered if any of us would ever make a passing grade.

Due to the large enrollment, the boys and girls were separated. Mr. George Fussell was in charge of the girls while Mr. Gray Hodges was in charge of the boys.

Our studies were the most important part of our freshmen year. We presented a short play and had the privilege of having some of the class take part in various activities about the school. Six waiters and waitresses were selected from our class to assist in the Junior-Senior Banquet.

By the time all our difficulties had smoothed out and before we realized it, spring flowers had ceased to bloom on the soil banks and the trees were losing their leaves, and we were once again in school.

Seventy excited sophomores answered to roll call in August, 1950. We marched importantly to our room and were disappointed to learn that we must again be separated. Mrs. Virginia Howe was in charge of the girls while Mr. Fenner Boyd was in charge of the boys. Many members of our class became an active part of the Beta Club, Junior Red Cross Council, F.H.A., and F.F.A. organizations.

Our sophomore year came to a happy and successful close, bringing to an end half of our struggle to become graduates.

We began the most important year thus far with fifty-six students on roll. We were happy to have as our adviser, Miss Mary Anne Campbell.

Maynard Waters served as our class president; Hilton Woolard, vice-president; Gwendolyn Paul, secretary; Elizabeth Cutler, treasurer; and Phrosene Latham, reporter. We selected our motto, class colors and flower.

Shortly after the beginning of school we began to plan for our Junior Play as a means of raising money for our Junior-Senior Banquet. On November 16, we presented a three act comedy entitled, "Too Sweet for Sixteen," which was a big success.

In the spring we gave the seniors a farewell banquet with "Show Boat" as our theme. The decorations carried out the idea of a show boat coming into shore with the dock crowded with curious people. A semi-formal dance brought this happy occasion to an end.

At the close of school the following marshals were chosen for Commencement from our class: Gwendolyn Paul, chief; Marilyn Mason, Fannie Pearl Modlin, Elizabeth Cutler, Rosalee Congleton and Judy Chrismon.

On the night of graduation our class was very proud to have Ann Kilby receive the Home Economics medal, and Gwendolyn Paul the Science medal.

We elected the following officers at the close of our Junior year to serve as our senior officers: Hilton Woolard, president; Dick Adams, vice-president; Ann Kilby, secretary; Evelyn Alligood, treasurer, and Judy Chrismon, reporter.

We returned to school in the fall of 1952 proud to bear the title "Dignified Seniors," forty-two in number and very glad to have Mrs. Gladys Lollis as our adviser.

One of the happiest events of our school life was our four-day tour to Washington, D. C., which we took on the 5th of October. We returned with pleasant memories which will always be with us when we think of our happy school days at Bath High.

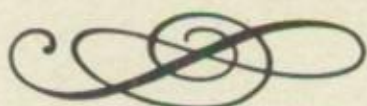

We drew up a list of privileges that we had been looking forward to since our freshman year. At the same time we elected our Senior Superlatives by popular vote.

In a short while we will be receiving our class rings. This is not the only occasion that we are anticipating, however. Presenting the Senior Play, attending the Junior-Senior Banquet, and Senior Day are all spot lights in our senior year.

Finally after four years, we will have reached our goal, Class Night, Baccalaureate Sermon, and most important of all, Graduation.

As we go to press with our year book, we look back with many fond and happy memories. As freshmen, we thought the four years ahead of us seemed all too long. As Seniors looking back over four pleasant years, the time now seems all too short.

Last Will and Testament

We, the Senior Class of Nineteen Hundred and Fifty-Three, of Bath High School, in the county of Beaufort, the State of North Carolina, being of sound mind, and realizing our impending departure from this school, do hereby declare and make this our last will and testament.

ARTICLE I

To Mr. Forbes, we wish to express our many thanks for the interest and leadership he has shown us during the past years. To our teachers, we leave our deepest appreciation for their efforts toward increasing our wisdom

ARTICLE II

To the buildings and busses we leave our deepest sympathy after the care we gave them for the past twelve years.

ARTICLE III

To the undergraduates: To the Juniors, we leave the job of issuing the two great publications: The Treasure Chest and The Pirate.

ARTICLE IV

Individual Bequests: During our years of school we have accumulated some well-known articles which we would like to bestow upon the Junior Class. They are as follows:

Dick Adams wills his well-trained hair to Gene Foreman and Harold Cutler. Evelyn Alligood wills her quick, pleasant smile to Betty Hawkins and Thomas Foskey. Marcia Boyd wills her "eye appeal" to Frances Credle and Valerie Cordon. Dorothy Cahoon and Marilyn Mason will their "red curls" to Mary Faye Jackson, Janice Harrison and Gertrude Waddell. Judy Chrismon wills her extra pounds to Nelda Cutler. Sylvia Clark and Gwen Paul leave their date books to Alva Chambers, Hazel Wallace and David Sikes. Leon Davidson wills to George Paul and Lindsey Keech his seat in Commercial Math. Jean Gibbs wills her "hour glass figure" to Lois Cutler and Faye Everette. Ann Kilby and Elizabeth Cutler will their natural curls to Geraldine Cox and Zelma Woolard. Ralph Kirk and Bobby O'Neal will their delicate manners to Bobby Harris and John Latham. Isabelle Keech wills her bad luck to Janice Woolard, Nellie Mae Cutler and Laurice Mason. Rosalee Congleton and Janice Wallace will their high grades to Betty Williams and Frances Ward. Isabelle Ambrose wills her "Woolard Affection" to Earl Smith and Monnie Mason. Ollie Ray Cutler wills his bookkeeping ruler to Marlow Paul and Adrian McGowan. Break it, boys! Steve Douglas wills to Stanley Woolard his bus No. 10. Frances Edwards wills her "giggles" to Mary Frances Clark and Betsy Ross. Phrosene Latham, Dell Meekins and Bessie Waters will all their good times to Lucille Hamilton, Sybil Sullivan and Vernetta Taylor. Make the best of it, girls! Hazel Gurkins leaves to Barbara Webster and Barbara Chrismon her "reducing course." Keep eating, girls! John Henry Woolard leaves his English vocabulary to Kent Gurganus and Sammy Woolard. To Troy Waters and Leland Cutler, Roddy Selby wills his "way with the women." Hilton Woolard and Maynard Waters will their football suits to Howard Cutler and J. C. Woolard. Ronald Carrow and Alexander Whitaker will their "love of Pinetown" to George Nelson, Joan Worall and Joyce Alligood. Fight it out, girls! Louise Colville and Norris Woolard will their "Senior Pride" to Eunice Waters, Janice Waters and Bobby Swindell. Billy Woolard wills his "studious ways" to Carl Tetterton, Jackie Jones and Jasper Swain. Guy Whitley wills his "Mario Lanza voice" to Donald Wallace and Irene Waters. Hugh Woolard wills his good looks to Jimmy Winstead and Ack Woolard. Morris Waters leaves to Franklin Windley and Earl Chrismon his love for women. Billy Smith wills his height to Gerald Black and Albert Chrismon. Ella Ruth Congleton wills her typing ability to Kenneth Waters and Shirley Tetterton. Ronald Woolard wills his extra book reports to Dan Wallace, C. E. Tetterton and Maurice Cutler. Mildred Daniels wills her good behavior to Carol Wallace, Marie Waters and Nellie Mae Cutler.

We hereby appoint Mrs. Gladys Lollis, our class adviser, as sole executor of this, our last will and testament.

In witness whereof, we the Senior Class of 1953 do set our seal on this, the nineteenth day of May, in the year of our Lord, Nineteen Hundred and Fifty-Three.

SCHOOL SONG

(Tune: Victory March)

Hail, to our dear Bath High School,
Honor and glory we'll show to you,
Marching on toward higher goals,
We're striving to reach some future day.
We'll never falter, we're not afraid,
Even though sometimes we are dismayed,
We are working, striving, seeking,
Ever to honor you.

To a very nice girl. May your wishes all come true and may you have the best of everything, and here's hoping I'll
see you at Bayview
this summer.
Barry O'Neal

the best of everything
my favorite girl. Here's hoping you won't ever forget me and Bayview, and the good times
we've had together. I am sure that you will be a leader in any field that you enter. (That is impossible 'cause I'll be right side of you.) I hope we do get to go together where ever we decide.
Love ya,
Barry O'Neal
